

BerbeeWalsh Department of Emergency Medicine

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE AND PUBLIC HEALTH

Exceptional opportunities to further your career in academic EMS. The BerbeeWalsh Department of Emergency Medicine (DEM) at the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine & Public Health (UW-SMPH) in Madison, Wisconsin is has positions available for both an Adult or Pediatric Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Physician (BC/BE) as well as a Prehospital Section Chief.

The successful candidate(s) will join a faculty of both adult and pediatric emergency physicians, as well as flight physicians. The candidate(s) will work closely with individual EMS agencies as well as Dane County and Wisconsin state EMS regulators and leaders. The DEM Prehospital Faculty Section also oversees the UW Emergency Education Center, which provides EMS Primary & Continuing Education, including paramedic, critical care, and advanced courses, and provides training for UW Health.

Prehospital responsibilities will include oversight of EMS agencies, educating EMS providers, clinical research related to EMS practices, oversight of the Physician Response Vehicle, and opportunity may exist to serve as a flight physician. Responsibilities will also include the clinical care of pediatric and adult patients in the emergency department (ED) and educating medical students, residents, and other learners in the academic medicine setting. Additional time will also be devoted to administrative responsibilities.

The Prehospital Section Chief will also be responsible for the leadership and academic growth of the DEM EMS program. Leadership responsibilities include, mentoring junior faculty and additional administrative responsibilities.

UW EM faculty provide clinical services in the EDs at the University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics (University Hospital) and other UW Health-approved sites. University Hospital is a busy referral hospital; one of only two academic medical centers in the state; and a Level 1 Trauma and Burn center for both adult and pediatric patients.

Madison, the vibrant capital of Wisconsin and home to the University of Wisconsin, has the best of all worlds: natural beauty and outdoor recreation, stimulating cultural offerings, distinctive restaurants and shops, and a spirit of fun.

A competitive salary structure commensurate with qualifications, relocation assistance, professional (CME) allowance, and a comprehensive benefit package is offered. To inquire, send your curriculum vitae and cover letter to:
